

Te Puna Wai o Waipapa/Hagley College – CODE OF CONDUCT AND CONDITIONS

Students, parents, caregivers and visitors are required to comply with the Hagley Code of Conduct and Conditions.

The Code of Conduct applies to all conduct, speech and action, and includes emails, texts, phone calls, social media or other communication.

Students are expected to:

- live our school values of Whakamarumarū (Responsibility), Whakawhirinaki (Trust), Mana (Respect), Tika (Integrity)
- work hard
- share responsibility for their learning
- attend all classes with the required basic equipment
- wear clothes that are clean, in good repair and appropriate in a school environment
- engage in restorative practices if required
- Junior College students are required to comply with the Contract of Learning (signed at interview)

Parents, caregivers and visitors are expected to:

- treat everyone with respect
- work together in partnership with staff for the benefit of students
- respect and adhere to our school values
- set a good example for students at all times
- follow school procedures to handle any complaints
- engage in restorative processes if required
- adhere to school policies and procedures and any legal requirements

The following are prohibited for all students, parents, caregivers and visitors:

- physical or verbal abuse or intimidation of staff or students
- racial, sexual or gender orientation harassment
- smoking, vaping, using or being in possession or under the influence of alcohol or drugs, within the College and its vicinity
- theft of any property
- wearing of clothes or personal decoration offensive to others
- using mobile phones or other devices for the purposes of harassing or intimidating other students or staff
- Junior College students may not leave the immediate College grounds during the day

Our disciplinary system includes:

- keeping students after school for a maximum of 15 minutes if they need to resolve a conflict with a teacher
- after school 'community service' (up to 1 hour long). A minimum of one day's notice will be given if required.

NCEA:

Authenticity Declaration

I understand that all work presented by me for assessment is my own: original, authentic, and free from plagiarism.