

PRE-PROFESSIONAL

COURSES 2023

Haere mai ki Te Puna Wai o Waipapa! Welcome to Hagley's pre-professional courses.

Our pre-professional courses are designed for students who are finishing high school and planning to continue their education in various graduate or professional fields or programmes. Hagley offers pre-professional courses in the fields of health, music, theatre, cuisine, dance, fashion, pre-health and early childhood and jewellery design.

Pre-professional courses are a next step beyond school to prepare students for entry into a variety of professional tertiary programmes or the professional workforce.

We live by our vision statement: lifelong learning that's accessible to all. That's what Hagley's pre-professional courses can be for you – a place that opens up opportunities that are right for you in your next step beyond high school.

We want you to feel excited about coming here. We look forward to you being part of our pre-professional programmes in 2023.

MORE THAN JUST YOUR REGULAR HIGH SCHOOL

There are many layers to Hagley that make us such a unique and successful school.

At most high schools, students start at Year 9 and each year progress through each year level to Year 12 or 13. At Hagley, you can start in the course and level that's right for you.

From Specialist, Pre-Professional Programmes, full and part-time programmes, adult education, tertiary pathways and After 3 night classes, Hagley has something for everyone with the ultimate goal of making lifelong learning accessible to all.

Laine Mefinoseta Satano
Student 2022

Hagley has opened wide my world while upholding my values. I started this year at Hagley because of the CUP course they offer and to help make the transition to university easier. I'm quite an analytical and practical thinker – I like things a specific way – so the idea of studying engineering appeals.

I made the move from the North Island early so that I could experience life here, make connections with others and get familiar with my surroundings. It was sort of a shock not seeing that many Pasifika persons around here; being in a tutor group, surrounded by others who are in a similar position to me, has helped me feel like I belong.

Here, the teachers want you to do your best and to succeed for yourself – not to fulfil their expectations. They're friendly and really helpful – they explain things step by step. At Hagley you learn to self-manage and communicate well. My timetable is quite similar to what it'll be like at university, sometimes I only have one class a day. This works in my favour because I tend to overcommit – but the flexibility of the timetable allows me to manage my duties at home with coaching and umpiring netball.

The teachers reach out to you with opportunities that are available. I'd never played basketball before, but one of the teachers convinced me to, saying that because I knew netball inside and out it'd be easy. Another opportunity was going to Auckland for 'Taste of Pasifika'. It was so inspiring seeing all the different performances, learning how art is a big part of our culture, and seeing fashion designs (that have been shown in London and Milan) up close.

Hagley for me is a journey that I want to keep exploring.

Tertiary Pathways

We have a range of options along side NCEA for students wanting to develop skills and confidence for tertiary study, or who need to complete qualifications.

Catch-Up College

Hagley's Catch-Up College enables students to get the credits they need to enter tertiary study.

Talk to us if you need credits in English, Maths or another subject at any level for particular course entry requirements.

NCEA

4 13TTP Tertiary Preparation

Are you aiming for university study in 2024?

Develop skills and confidence in reading and writing for tertiary study and become familiar with university academic processes, alongside your NCEA programme.

This academic communication course is designed to sit alongside your main timetable to help prepare you for the transition to degree-level study. It covers reading strategies, source evaluation, essay planning and writing, oral and poster presentation, citations and referencing, forum participation skills, learning and study strategies, and approaches to exams. There is the opportunity in the course to gain University Entrance reading and writing credits.

TUE EVENING

Numeracy for Uni

Numeracy for Engineering and Physical Sciences (13EPS)

This half-year course prepares you for the Certificate in University Preparation (CUP) mathematics course TRNS007 Mathematics, which leads into an Engineering or Science degree.

TUE 6-9PM

Numeracy for Other Degrees (11MAT)

Students wanting to meet basic numeracy requirements for university entry (e.g. for Social Work or Education) or for entry into CUP can enrol in 11MAT on Tuesday evenings. 11MAT is a full year course.

The 11MAT course leads into the university CUP course TRNS009 An introduction to statistics and probability, which prepares students for Commerce and other degrees.

AWS Academic Writing and Study Skills

DAY, SEM 1

DAY, SEM 2

As UC@Hagley, we teach Academic writing and study skills, which includes the compulsory paper (TRNS001) of the University of Canterbury's Certificate in University Preparation (CUP).

If you are wanting to develop skills and confidence in reading and writing for tertiary study our AWS paper may be the right option for you. The course offers an introduction to tertiary study including familiarisation with UC learning systems.

The course covers:

- reading strategies
- essay planning and writing
- academic evaluation
- citations and referencing
- study and exam strategies

A pass result in Academic writing and study skills (TRNS001) at Hagley can be credit transferred to the University of Canterbury CUP programme.

Courses are on Tuesdays & Fridays, at Hagley College. We offer two intakes: mid-February to mid-June (preparing for university entry in Semester 2, 2023) and mid-Jun to late-October (preparing for university entry in Semester 1, 2024).

Jessica-May Smith
Student 2022

I'm here because of the flexibility that Hagley offers. I do full-time dancing and coming to Hagley means that I can complete school as well. Each day is slightly different but I'm here most mornings and then I go to dance. It's not just flexible in terms of timetable – they're flexible in terms of approach as well. I'm going to The Ailey School in New York for a summer intensive course – so I've been able to organise some time off for that.

All the students are lovely and so friendly – it was easy to settle in, especially within the tutor group. The first day was just spent with them, and we were all new, so it made it easier to get to know everyone. There's not really big 'friend groups' like most schools – here you can just go and talk to people.

I'm dyslexic and the learning support at this school is awesome. There's quite a few learning support teachers and they all help, but you're assigned your own support person. They have a special room that you can go to and do your work if you need to – there's no need to book, you can just go in.

Because of how flexible Hagley is with learning they can help you achieve things that normal schools probably couldn't help you achieve. Hagley is definitely a place to consider if you work part time or have specialist interests. The fact that it is a community college is actually really helpful – everyone is here because it's bigger than just school – everyone is here because they've got dreams and goals that they want to achieve; they're here for a purpose.

Hagley for me is somewhere where I feel included and supported in everything that I do.

HAGLEY WRITERS' INSTITUTE

 COURSE COST	1500 Includes $100 adult enrolment fee
 ENTRY REQUIREMENTS	Aged 19+ as well as application, writing sample and interview
 QUALIFICATION	Hagley Certificate of Achievement. Portfolio can be assessed for NCEA Level 3 English standard

For further information or to apply, please contact:

e: writers@hagley.school.nz

w: www.hagleywriters.net

Do you want to take your writing seriously and be guided and extended?

Since 2007, the Hagley Writers' Institute has offered a challenging and stimulating programme for adult writers in Ōtautahi.

Course Components

Course Structure

Groups of up to 12 students work with a teacher to write in a range of forms. Tutors introduce students to a wide range of quality writing, and encourage them to explore different forms. Students are supported to pursue their own interests, from poetry, long and short-form fiction and creative non-fiction, to memoir, theatre script, screenplay, and hybrid forms. Students become expert readers, learn to give and receive critique, and establish their own writing practice. They also hear from guest speakers and participate in workshops by established local and visiting writers. The course is a valuable way to connect with other writers and find opportunities to participate in the local writing community. Each student is also assigned a mentor to provide expert feedback on a small portion of their work.

Outcomes

Students prepare a portfolio of their best work as a requirement of graduation. There is also a half-portfolio option. At the end of the year, the portfolios are assessed internally for the Hagley Writers' Institute Certificate and endorsed at either 'attainment' or 'cum laude' (distinction) level. Students receive written feedback on their work. A shortlist of the full portfolios are externally assessed and the Margaret Mahy Award is given to one portfolio to acknowledge writing excellence.

Programme

Classes are designed to fit in with writers' busy schedules and are held on Saturday mornings from 9.30am-12.30pm for 20 weeks spread throughout the first three terms – 7 weeks in Terms 1 and 2, and 6 weeks in Term 3. Students accepted into the Institute are expected to make a serious commitment to their writing practice in addition to the Saturday morning classes.

AS A STUDENT
YOU KNOW
THAT YOUR VOICE IS LISTENED TO

My family moved to Christchurch from the West Coast. We were looking at schools and I wanted to go to somewhere that could fulfil my academic needs and enable me to meet amazing people. I remember being in the interview and just looking at Mum going, "This is it – I want to go here."

The teachers here are super helpful and so approachable. They really focus on building inclusive, respectful relationships with us and ensuring that our learning needs are being met. I've got a broad mix of subjects from outdoor education to philosophy - which has been outstanding! Hagley recognises that everyone has different goals and priorities; they do listen to you and help you create your individual learning plan.

I think they've found this good balance between the traditional and the alternative educational paths – you can truly talk and work with the staff here to get what you need. The respect goes both ways – as a student you know that your voice is listened to. I'm passionate about the Predator Free 2050 goal so I spoke to management about creating a trap line around the school. The immediate response was 'great – we'd love to help with that'. We're just in the planning and fundraising stage at the moment but it's wonderful that it's so positive.

Hagley for me is a place where I can express myself, feel safe, and explore the many opportunities available here.
